RE: Bridgeforth, Michael
DKT: 02 CR 951-01
Request for Termination of Supervision with Outstanding Fine

Dear Judge Hayden:

The above-captioned individual was sentenced by the Honorable John W. Bissell on May 10, 2004 to three years probation for the offense of Embezzlement from the IRS. A fine of $1,500 was imposed with special conditions of cooperation with the IRS and financial disclosure. Based on his residence, Bridgeforth has been supervised by the Southern District of New York. On May 7, 2007, due to this request, the case was reassigned to Your Honor.

Bridgeforth's supervision is due to terminate on May 9, 2007 and he has a remaining fine balance of $917. According to his supervising probation officer, Bridgeforth has made a satisfactory adjustment to supervision. He has reported as directed, remained arrest-free, has maintained stable residence with his wife and children, has remained steadily employed, and has been compliant with all conditions of supervision.

Bridgeforth has experienced financial problems, and although he has made consistent payments toward his fine, has been unable to pay it in full. We respectfully recommend that his Probation be allowed to terminate as scheduled. He has been instructed and has agreed to continue making fine payments until this obligation has been satisfied.

Should Your Honor have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact the undersigned at 973-645-4667.

Respectfully submitted,

CHRISTOPHER MALONEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
